The Seniorogue

Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Nine

Foreword

Time passes swiftly, but memories linger long after events have passed. So it is with the Seniors of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Nine—the memories of the happiness that was ours during the past year linger. We hope we have captured tangible evidence of that happiness and of your happiness in this book that we present to you.

Dedication

We have come through the years under substantial guidance and have now reached life's open doors. As we look back at yesterday we recall, with appreciation, the patience and understanding given us during our struggle to learn. Now with revived memories we acknowledge our learned friends with gratitude.

When we begin to put our gratitude into words we remember people to whom words will never express our appreciation. It is for this reason that we, the Senior Class of 1969, wish to dedicate our yearbook to such a person—MRS. FRANCES CURRIE.

Mrs. Currie has seen us grow from awkward grammar graders to "sophisticated" seniors. She stood behind us and gave us a push forward—forward in the right direction to what we are now and will be in the future. She helped us develop our minds to the level we have reached today. Cato said, "Learn, but learn from the learned." And such was our privilege.

As seniors we stand here and looking back we say, "Thank you, Mrs. Currie."

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1969, being of sound mind and memory, realize that our school days will be ending soon. We hereby publish this document to be our Last Will and Testament on this sixteenth day of February in the year of our graduation.

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1 To the Senior sponsor, Mrs. Penelope Worthington, we leave our deepest love.
SECTION 2 To our Alma Mater, we leave our fondest memories.
SECTION 3 To the principal we leave our gratitude.
SECTION 4 To the faculty we leave our appreciation.
SECTION 5 To the Junior Class, we leave our most prized possession—the honorable title of "SENIOR" and the privileges that go with this title.
SECTION 6 To the Sophomores we leave our silly minds.
SECTION 7 To the Freshmen we leave our funny ways.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1 I, Ronnie Buchanan, hereby leave my great English ability to Dan Brown.
SECTION 2 I, Kathy Patterson, hereby leave my ability to get things done and still have a good time to Donna Sykes.
SECTION 3 I, Donny Lucas, hereby leave my ability to do Math to Mrs. Cannady. She can have it.
SECTION 4 I, Diane Phillips, hereby leave my position on the basketball team to Gail Dickens.
SECTION 5 I, Teresa Thomas, hereby leave the best year of high school, the Senior year, to my brother Gary.
SECTION 6 I, Jerry Thomas, hereby leave.
SECTION 7 I, Ellan Patterson, hereby leave my job as scorekeeper to anyone unlucky enough to want it.
SECTION 8 I, Lanny McIver, hereby leave my footprints.
SECTION 9 I, Rodney Donaldson, hereby leave all the girls anything I have that they want.
SECTION 10 I, Donna Shaw, hereby leave my ability to keep quiet at the right times to Diane Stewart. She needs it.
SECTION 11 I, Ronny Thomas, hereby leave my love to Mrs. Cannady because she can not get along without it.
SECTION 12 I, Brenda Murchison, hereby leave my quietness to the Sophomore girls.
SECTION 13 I, Gail Barker, hereby leave my talkative ways to Lura Geraurd. It may come in handy.
SECTION 14 I, Phil Kelly, hereby leave bus no. 16 to Jimmy Angel.
SECTION 15 I, Joan Thomas, hereby leave my love for animals to anyone who loves them also.

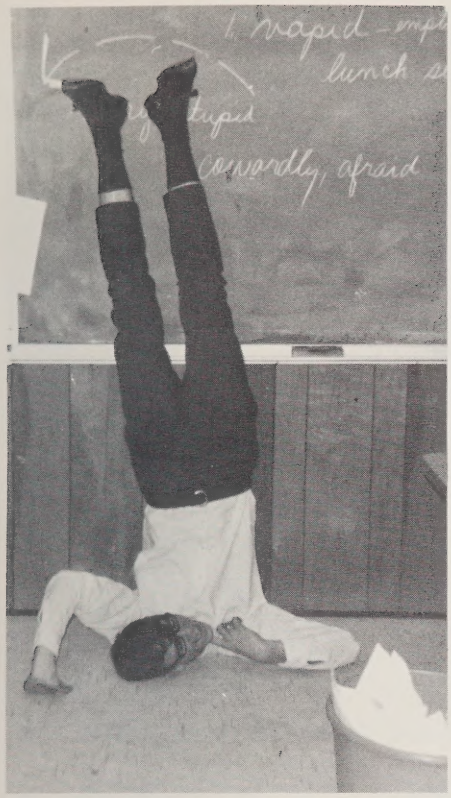
Student Life



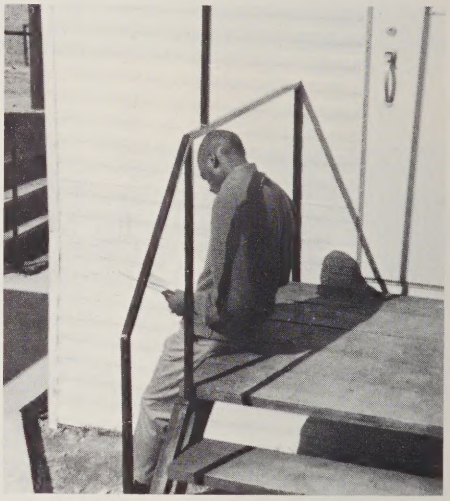
Steve always did get things mixed up. Here he used his head.

Junior Phillips and Charla Kennedy, the 67-68 mascots, have their first night on the town. They start young at Broadway.

Marie doesn't really like kissing a girl even if she is pretty. Teresa Thomas, a very lovely queen, looks like she is enjoying every minute.

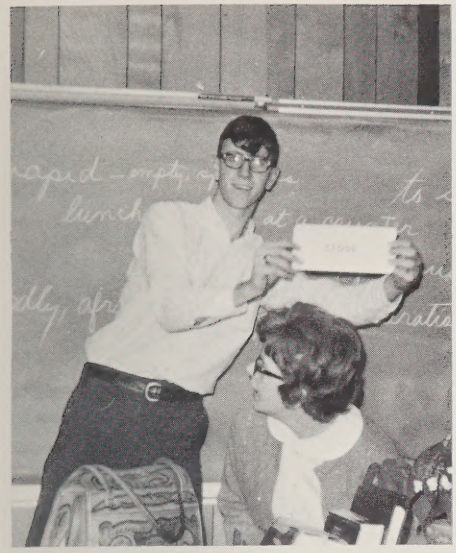
HAPPINESS is Food! The 10:40 break gives many students a chance to refuel for the oncoming two hour nap. Is Gail Barker serving Joyce, Joan, and Kay, or is she collecting food from them?

Just sitting in the sun–watching the world go by–The big question–"Should I stay here or go to Rock Hill?"



"Alone, alone, all, all alone." Larry Womack reads a book that is due in five minutes.

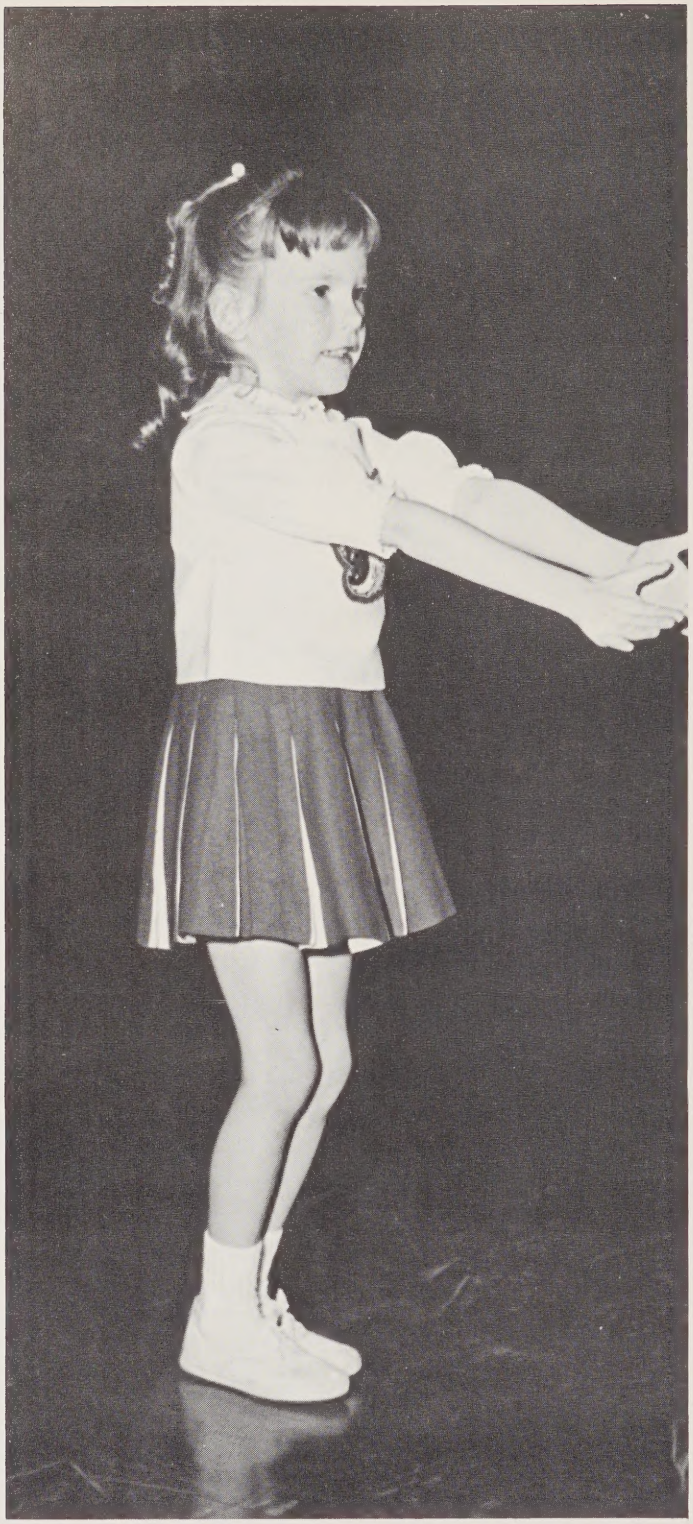
This looks like exercise at a prison. Lee Ray surrenders to Gary's plan.



Steve Johnson tries to pass HIS title on to somebody else.

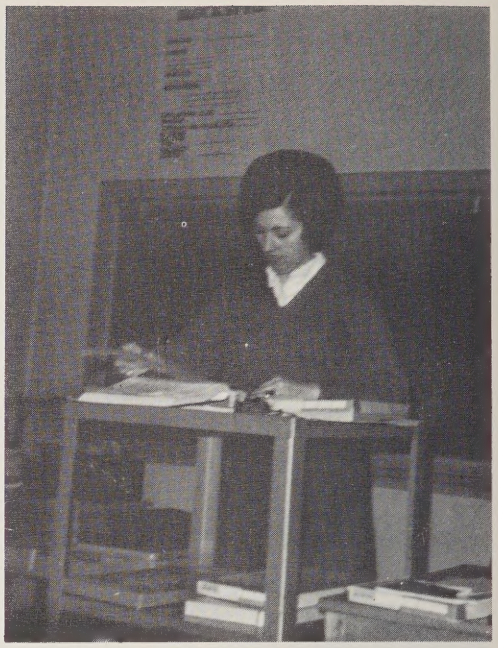
Ronnie Thomas DID do something this year! He made a lovely valentine and even painted a verse on it. Diane's pleased look shows how we all felt about his progress.

Yes, the seniors are paying attention to Mr. Bostrum. He is explaining the costs involved in graduation paraphernalia.



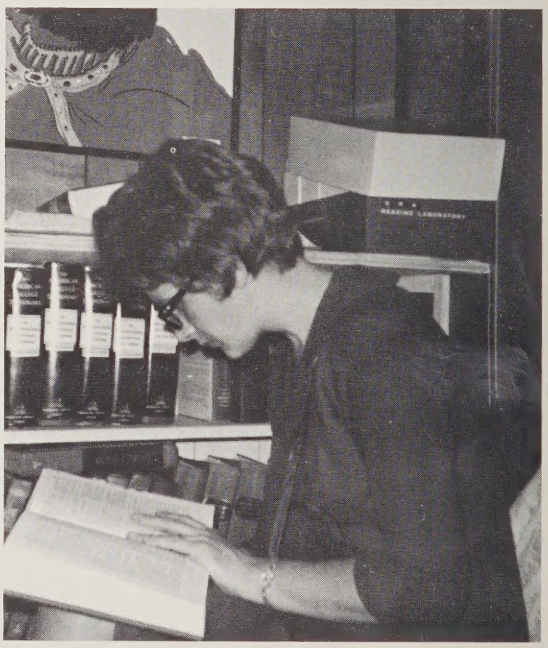
Five year old Miss Dale Arnette shows the crowd how the cheer is done. Dale has been our cheerleader mascot for 2 years.

"Little Red shows them how it's done."



We have heard of people using their tongues to help them draw or paint—but Miss McCullen is the first one we have seen use her tongue to read.

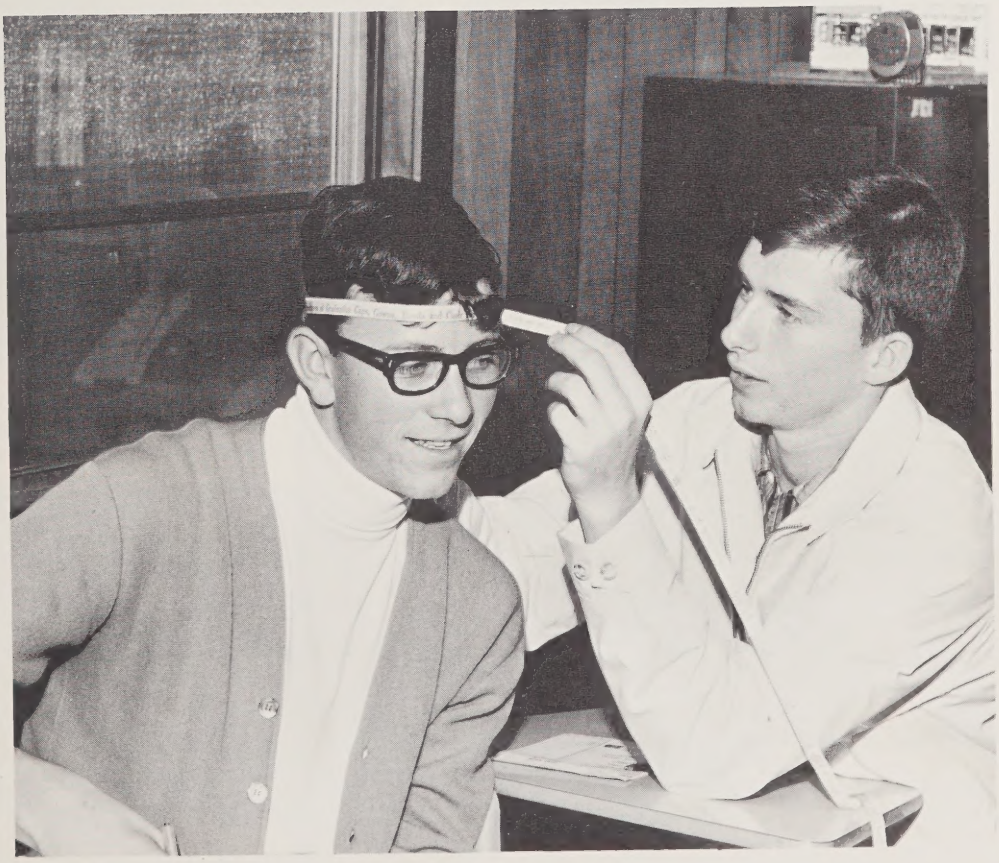
"Let's see. Pages 120-367 should be enough to hold them for a period."



"Now, what was that word that Michael used?"
Does she really find happiness in a dictionary?
"A jug of wine, a loaf of bread, and a book."

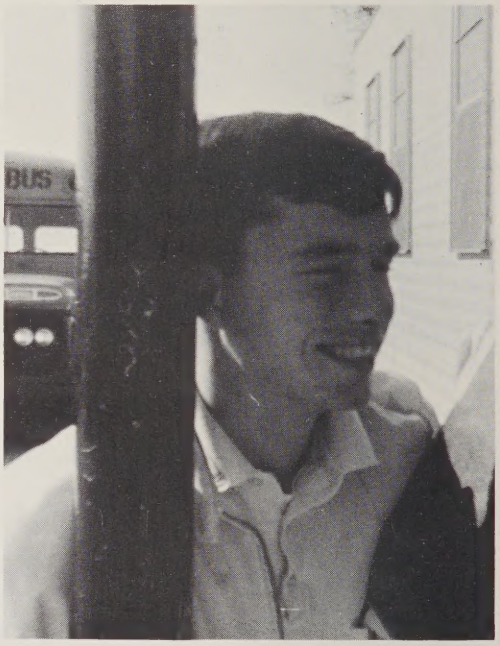
In the far corner, Ross Holt says "I'd rather fight than switch." But everyone just keeps on dancing.

Steve Johnson gets Ronnie Buchanan to measure him for his graduation cap—now his only problem is to graduate.

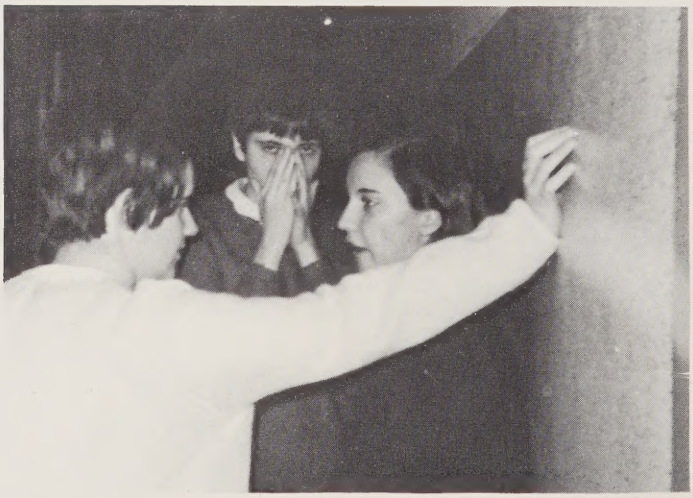


You did WHAT to Mr. Williams?

"Early to bed, early to rise." Ellan Patterson says it makes her SLEEPY!



Happiness is standing on the corner watching all the girls go by. Ronnie Buchanan is HAPPY!

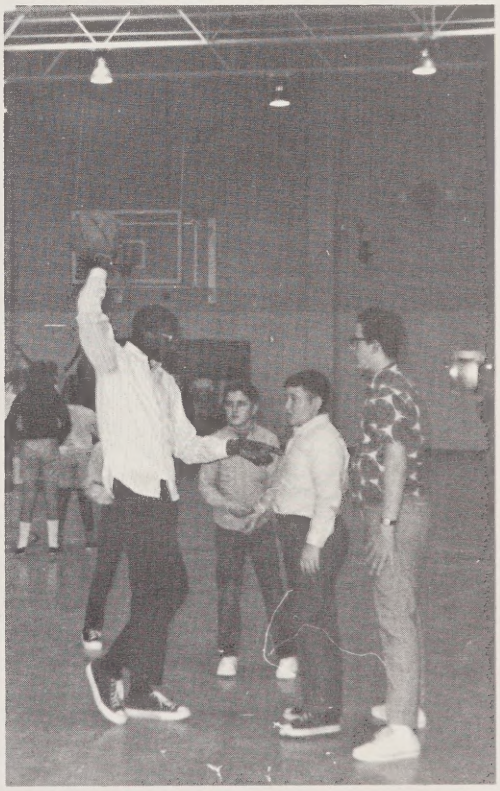


HAPPINESS is sharing a juicy piece of gossip. Cathy Mansfield "tells it like it is" while Linda Cox and Gracie Smith are astounded!

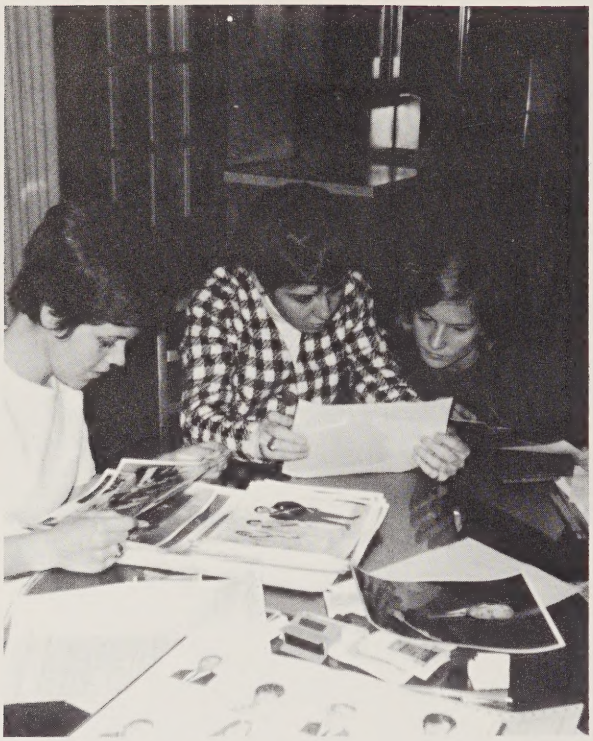
"Hey red, Hey white, you look so good tonite!" Cheerleaders and varsity girls cheer the varsity boys onto the court. Lyn Prince and Harry Chubbs lead the way.

"The team was in a huddle, the captain lowered his head. They all got together and this is what he said . . ." Co-captain Ronnie Buchanan goes over instructions for stomping the opponents with his teammates.

"Who passed out the booze?" Our boys celebrate a hard fought victory in the plush B.H.S. dressing room.



"Raise your right hand and repeat after me." Larry Womack is serious about teaching the skills of basketball to future Broadway stars.



"Faking it" Annual Staff members stop long enough to pose for a picture, then go back to their fun and games. Teresa, Kathy, and Sarah really know how to fake.

"I am so working!" Sarah Sloan challenges our roving photographer, Donnie Lucas.

Matters that involve money get special attention from the senior class. Ordering graduation announcements is an expensive business for everyone.

HAPPINESS is winning both homecoming games against Deep River. Have you ever seen happier groups? Tears of joy flow freely from the fired up teams.
